

Uzbekistan Silk Road Classic

Tashkent – Urgench – Khiva – Bukhara – Samarkand – Tashkent

DURATION

8 Days

COUNTRIES

Uzbekistan

TRAVEL STYLE

Small Group / Private

SUPPORT

Silk Road cities, domestic flights, train tickets & local guides

Overview

Uzbekistan Silk Road Classic is an 8-day journey through the country's most iconic historic cities: Tashkent, Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand. The route is designed for travelers who want to see the essential Silk Road highlights in a compact and comfortable program.

The tour begins in Tashkent, Uzbekistan's modern capital, then continues by domestic flight to Khiva, a preserved old city surrounded by fortress walls. From there, the journey moves to Bukhara and Samarkand, two legendary Silk Road centers known for madrasahs, minarets, mausoleums, bazaars and traditional craft heritage.

This program is suitable for first-time visitors to Uzbekistan who enjoy cultural sightseeing, walking tours, historic architecture and well-organized logistics. Domestic flights and train travel help connect the main cities while keeping the route efficient.

Prices

Travelers	Price per person
Starting price	$1,240

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Tashkent

Arrive in Tashkent and meet your driver at the airport. Transfer to the hotel and check in according to hotel policy. The rest of the day is free to relax after your flight, take a short walk nearby or prepare for the start of your Uzbekistan Silk Road journey.

Day 2: Tashkent City Tour – Flight to Urgench – Khiva

Begin your guided tour of Tashkent, a capital where old neighborhoods, Soviet-era avenues and modern public spaces come together. Visit key city highlights such as the Courage Monument, the Old City area, Khast-Imam surroundings, Chorsu Bazaar, selected Tashkent Metro stations, the Museum of Applied Arts, Alisher Navoi Theatre exterior and Amir Timur Square. In the evening, transfer to the domestic airport for the flight to Urgench. Upon arrival, continue by road to Khiva and check in at the hotel.

Day 3: Khiva Old City Tour – Flight or Transfer to Bukhara

Spend the day exploring Khiva's Ichan-Kala, a compact walled city and one of Uzbekistan's most atmospheric Silk Road sites. Walk through narrow lanes lined with madrasahs, mosques, minarets and palace courtyards. Sightseeing may include Kunya-Ark, Juma Mosque, Kalta-Minor Minaret, Tash-Khovli Palace, Pakhlavan Makhmud Mausoleum and Islam Khodja Minaret. Later, transfer to Urgench for the onward flight to Bukhara, or travel by train or road if flight schedules require a change.

Day 4: Bukhara Walking Tour

Discover Bukhara on a guided walking tour through the old city, where many monuments are located close to one another. Visit Lyabi-Hauz Ensemble, Magoki-Attori Mosque, Chor-Minor, the traditional trading domes, Kalyan Minaret, Kalyan Mosque, Miri-Arab Madrasah, Ulugbek and Abdulazizkhan madrasahs, Ark Fortress, Bolo-Khauz Mosque, Ismail Samani Mausoleum and Chashma-Ayub. In the evening, enjoy local atmosphere in the old town, with an optional cultural show or dinner depending on the final program.

Day 5: Bukhara Surroundings – Drive to Samarkand

Continue sightseeing around Bukhara with visits that may include Sitorai Mokhi-Khosa, the former summer residence of the last emir of Bukhara, the Bakhouddin Naqshbandi memorial complex and the Fayzulla Khodjaev House Museum. In the afternoon, depart for Samarkand by road. On arrival, check in at the hotel and rest after the journey.

Day 6: Samarkand City Tour

Explore Samarkand, one of the greatest cities of the Silk Road and a symbol of Timurid architecture. Visit Registan Square, Gur Emir Mausoleum, Bibi Khanum Mosque, Siab Bazaar and Ulugbek Observatory. The afternoon may include free time to enjoy the city at your own pace, return to a favorite monument or relax at a local café.

Day 7: Samarkand Sightseeing – Train to Tashkent

Continue your Samarkand discovery with Shakhi-Zinda Necropolis, Afrasiab Museum and the Tomb of Saint Daniel. Later, visit Konigil village to learn about traditional Samarkand paper-making from mulberry bark. After lunch or free time, transfer to the railway station and take the train back to Tashkent. Upon arrival, transfer to the hotel.

Day 8: Departure from Tashkent

Check out from the hotel and transfer to Tashkent International Airport according to your flight schedule. This concludes your Uzbekistan Silk Road Classic tour through Tashkent, Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand.

What is Included

- Accommodation in selected hotels or similar category properties based on double or twin room sharing
- Daily breakfast at hotels
- All transfers and transportation according to the confirmed itinerary
- Airport, railway station and domestic transfer assistance according to the route
- Guided sightseeing with English-speaking local guides in each city
- Entrance tickets to listed museums, monuments and sightseeing places
- Economy-class domestic flight tickets listed in the final program, such as Tashkent–Urgench and Urgench–Bukhara when available
- Economy-class train ticket from Samarkand to Tashkent, subject to schedule availability
- Uzbekistan visa support letter if required for the traveler’s nationality
- Selected cultural experiences or meals when clearly included in the final confirmed program

Not Included

- International flights before and after the tour
- Uzbekistan visa consular fees, if applicable
- Single room supplement or room upgrade charges
- Lunches, dinners and drinks unless clearly listed in the final itinerary
- Personal travel insurance
- Hotel extras, laundry, minibar and other personal expenses
- Photo or video fees where charged separately by museums or monuments
- Tips for guides, drivers and service staff
- Any services not clearly mentioned as included

FAQ

Is this tour suitable for first-time visitors to Uzbekistan?

Yes. This route includes the most famous Uzbekistan highlights: Tashkent, Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand. It is a strong classic itinerary for travelers visiting the country for the first time.

Is the tour private or group-based?

The program can be offered as a small group or private tour depending on your preferred dates, budget and availability. The final format is confirmed after inquiry.

Are domestic flights always included?

The standard route uses domestic flights for long-distance sections such as Tashkent–Urgench and, when available, Urgench–Bukhara. If flights are unavailable or schedules change, the route may be adjusted by train or road transfer.

How much walking is involved?

Most sightseeing days include several hours of walking, especially in Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand. The pace is moderate, with stops for photos, explanations and breaks.

Do I need a visa for Uzbekistan?

Visa requirements depend on your nationality. Many travelers can enter Uzbekistan visa-free, while others may need an e-visa or consular visa. We will advise you based on your passport and travel dates.

Can the itinerary be customized?

Yes. Extra nights, hotel upgrades, private guiding, extensions to the Aral Sea, Aidarkul Lake, Penjikent or other destinations can be added on request.

Plan Your Central Asia Journey

Contact Yola Rowana for updated availability, final price confirmation, visa guidance and custom travel planning.